Bradford Perkins

Bradford Perkins is the founder of Perkins Eastman architects, the largest architectural, interior design and planning firm in New York. He and his firm have specialized in services for people with special needs throughout the U.S. and in many countries overseas. Perkins Eastman clients include most of the major medical centers in the region, over 200 sponsors of services for the aging and many organizations, such as United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk, which serves children and adults with a wide range of disabilities and special needs. He and his firm are currently assisting UCP Suffolk with the design and construction of the United Cerebral Palsy of Suffolk Health Center, Central Islip, NY. They also are working on many other buildings in the area including the Gurwin Jewish Geriatric Center, Southampton Hospital, Peyton Lane Nursing Center, the headquarters of Renaissance Technologies in Stony Brook, the Suffolk County Courthouse, and many others. Brad is the author of textbooks on school design and the design of environments for the aging.

Brad Perkins is also the Chairman of the Board of Helen Keller International, a leading agency working on eye health, nutritional issues and child survival in countries around the world as well as Chairman of the Board of the Hudson Planning Group, a non-profit providing technical assistance to organizations serving persons with HIV and AIDS.

Brad Perkins has a BA in Latin American History from Cornell, an MBA from Stanford, and a BArch from Cornell and CCNY. He is married to his college sweetheart, is the father of three lovely daughters, and grandfather of two sets of remarkable twins.
